On 17 October 2026 SHEIN's UK storefront had 5,154,854 live products. Another 76,502 listed products (1.5%) were sold out or off sale at that moment.

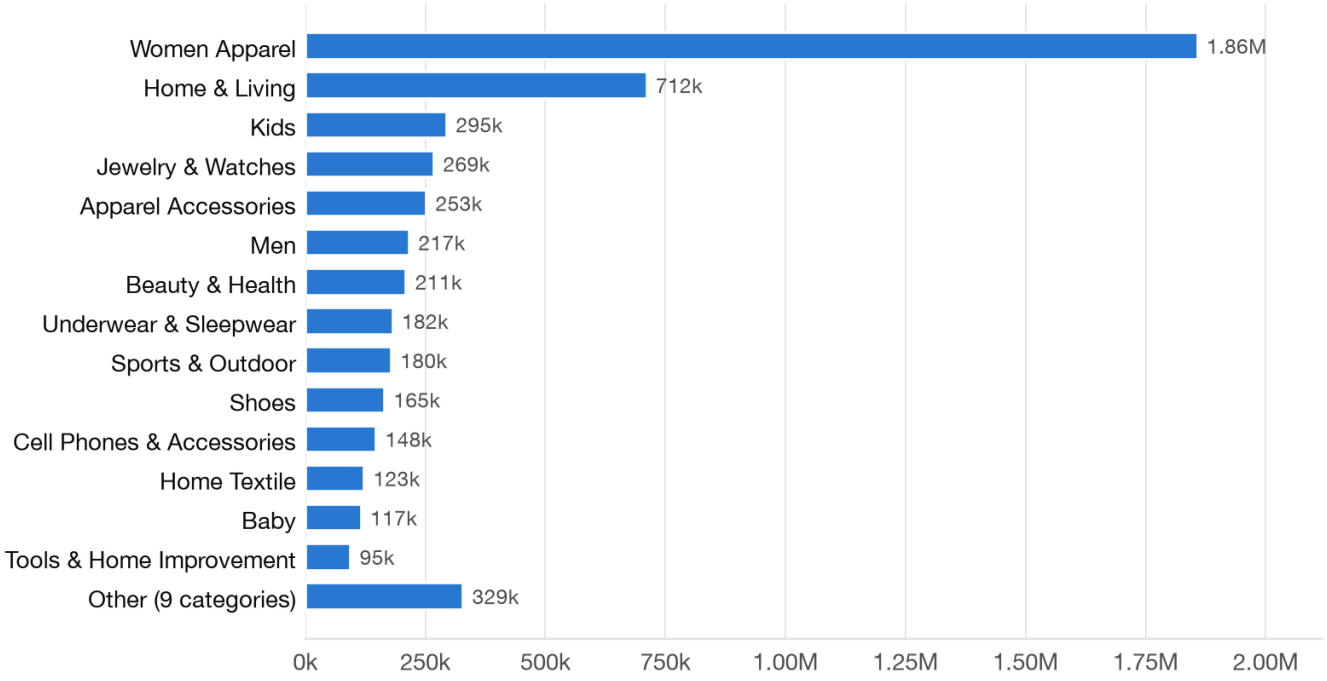

The UK has the largest European storefront. Across the eight European storefronts we measured there are 6.6 million distinct products, but only 1.2 million are listed in all eight. Each country gets a different assortment.

> Products per storefront, 17 October 2026: GB 5.20M, ES 3.44M, IT 3.28M, FR 2.94M, DE 2.91M, NL 2.63M, EUQS 2.52M, PL 2.42M.

What SHEIN sells

Women's clothing dominates: 36% of all UK products sit in "Women Apparel". But SHEIN is now a general store: Home & Living alone has 712k products, more than Kids or Men. The catalogue spans 23 top-level and 7,117 leaf categories.

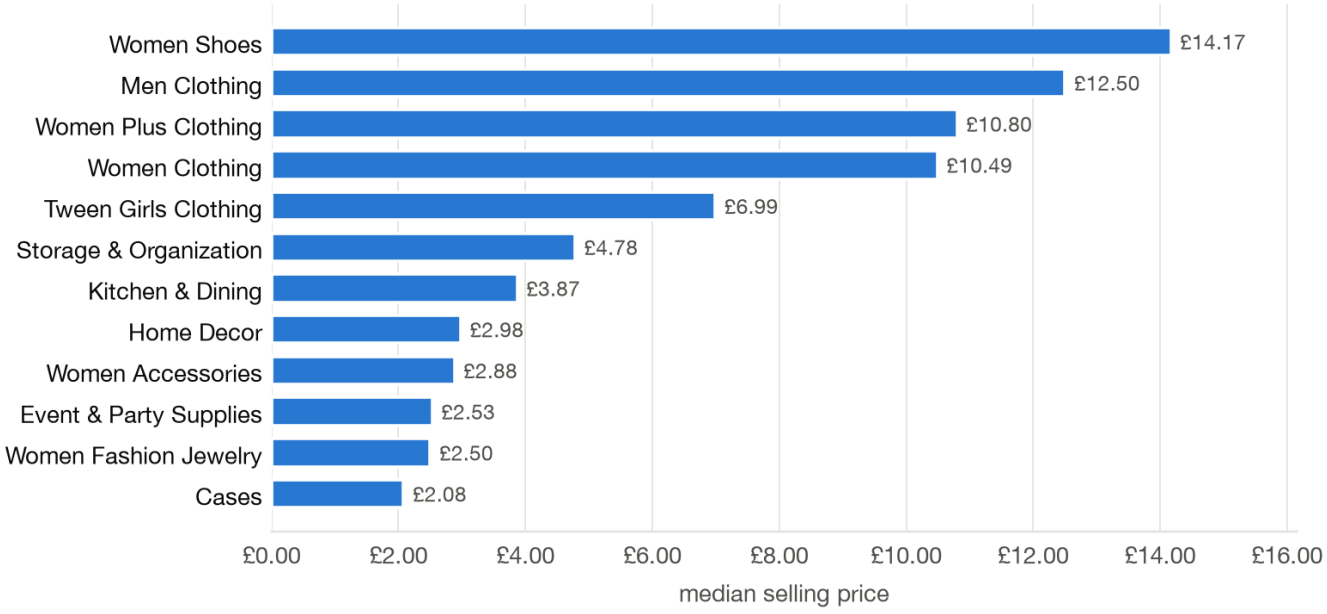

> Top-level category of each product as assigned by SHEIN. The biggest single leaf category is "Women T-Shirts" with 220,754 products.

A median price of £7.69

Half of SHEIN's UK products sell for under £7.69. A third (32%) cost under £5, 63% under £10, and only 1.6% cost £50 or more. The middle 80% sit between £1.98 and £20.67.

Median price by category

Selling price as shown to UK shoppers, in GBP including VAT. Categories with at least 20,000 priced products.

Almost everything is "on sale"

98% of priced UK products are shown with a higher crossed-out price next to the selling price. The typical markdown is 25%; markdowns of 20–22% are the most common, and 22% of products claim half price or better. Only 1.8% show no discount at all.

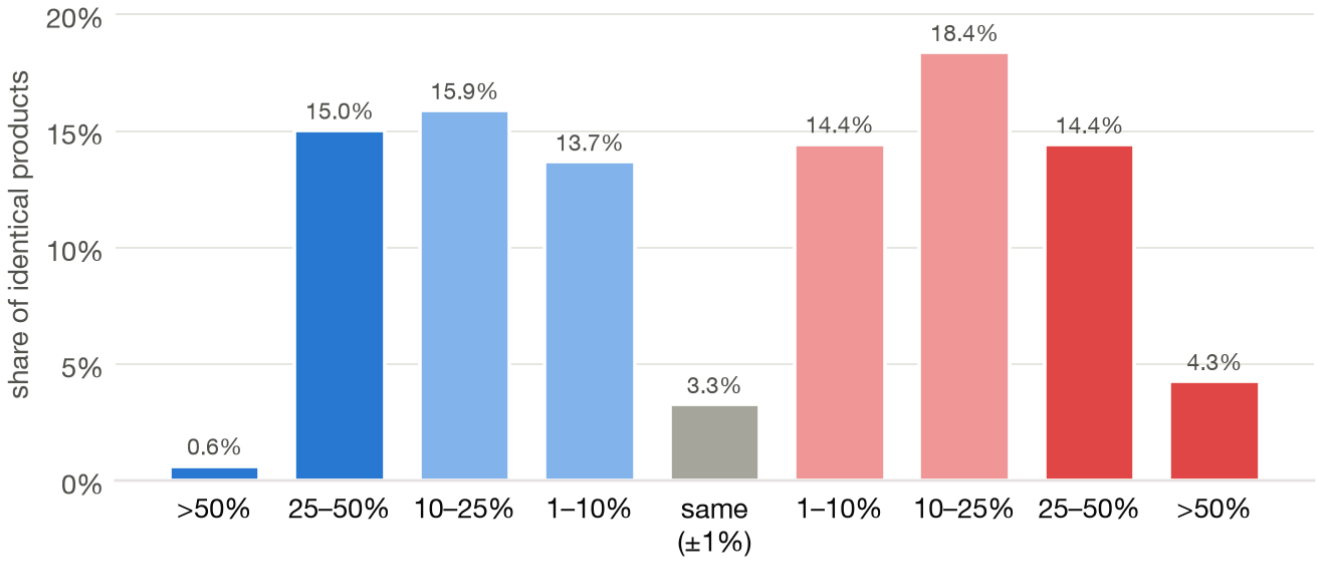

| Category | priced products | shown discounted | median markdown |

| Tween Girls Clothing | 71,016 | 99% | 38% |

> Markdown = 1 − selling price ÷ crossed-out ("retail") price, both as shown by SHEIN on 16–17 October 2026. A single snapshot can't show how long a crossed-out price was ever charged; a daily price history can.

> Bars: live UK products by creation day; line: 7-day average. The holiday dips are consistent with the date being set where products are created.

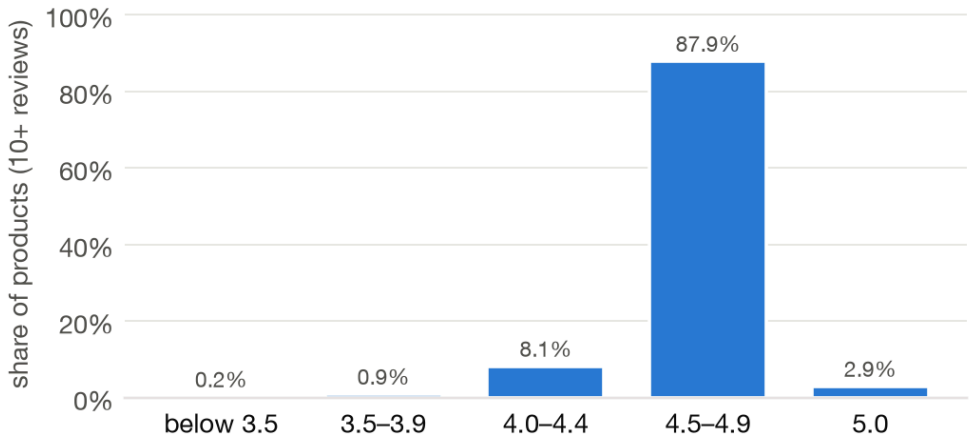

> The live catalogue by month of creation, January 2024 onwards; October 2026 is partial.
